ANNE POMERANTZ IS APPOINTED REGIONAL ATTORNEY IN NLRB'S SEATTLE, WA REGIONAL OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board's General Counsel Ronald Meisburg announced the appointment of career attorney Anne Pomerantz as Regional Attorney in the agency's Regional Office in Seattle, WA (Region 19). In her new position, she will assist Regional Director Richard Ahearn in the enforcement and administration of the National Labor Relations Act in Washington, Oregon, and Alaska, as well as parts of Idaho and Montana.

The NLRB investigates and remedies unfair labor practices and conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation.

Commenting on the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg stated:

Anne Pomerantz, in her many years of service with the NLRB, has demonstrated a strong commitment to an even-handed and vigorous enforcement of the Act. Her broad range of experience before joining the Board as well as in both the Special Litigation Branch in Headquarters and the West Los Angeles field office, together with her excellent analytical ability and litigation skills, will serve the Seattle Region well in her new role as Regional Attorney.

Anne Pomerantz grew up in New Jersey and received her BA in 1983 from Washington University in St. Louis. Having worked in human resources for several years prior to law school, she received her J.D. degree in 1990 from Yeshiva University's Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York City. After spending time in private practice as a labor/employment law attorney, she joined the Special Litigation Branch of the NLRB in 1992. She transferred to Region 31 in Los Angeles, CA in 1995 as a Field Attorney, was promoted to Supervisory Attorney in 2001, and Deputy Regional Attorney in 2004. She is a member of the New York and California bars.
